校友潘金英：以閱讀創作傳遞教育理念 Alumna Poon Kam Ying: Conveying educational philosophy through reading and writing

澳門大學作為澳門現代高等教育的起點，自東亞大學（澳門大學前身）年代已為社會作育英才，在大學建校初期，有不少來自香港的學生越洋求學，潘金英校友便是其一。多年來活躍於香港兒童文學界與教育領域的潘金英，在她追夢的故事上，大學的求學經歷亦是其人生軌跡中濃墨重彩的一筆，既為她的文學創作注入深厚底蘊，也為她的教育事業奠定堅實根基。

As the starting point of modern higher education in Macao, the University of Macau has been nurturing talents for society since the University of East Asia (UEA, the predecessor of the University of Macau) era. In the early days of the university, many students from Hong Kong came to study in Macao, and alumna Poon Kam Ying (Janny) was one of them. Active in Hong Kong's children's literature and education sectors for many years, Janny's study experience at the university has been a significant chapter in her life journey, not only enriching her literary creation with profound cultural foundation, but also laying a solid foundation for her education career.

- Bachelor of Arts, University of East Asia (1986)

在上世紀五、六十年代，不少家庭都傾向多生多育，而潘金英的家庭亦不例外。她家中共有五兄弟姊妹，但父母只能負擔得起長兄升讀大學的學費，雖然她心中對尋求知識充滿著渴望，但為減輕家庭負擔，她選擇在完成師範學院的課程後便投身職場，更憑著優異的成績早早已獲學校聘用為老師。

然而，升讀大學的目標從未在潘金英的心中消失，她決定邊工作邊存錢，再利用業餘時間圓自己的大學夢。恰好，東亞大學成為她圓夢的良機。當時學校課程對出席率的要求較彈性，剛好契合到她既要工作又要深造的需求；另外，她更是當時東亞大學圖書館館長林佐瀚的粉絲，經常會在電視上看收由其主持的節目《每日一字》。「在香港常常會看他的電視節目，所以很想入讀澳門東亞大學並選修文史。」這位深受她喜愛的學者，引領她踏上了在東亞大學的求學之旅。

在東亞大學開啟圓夢之旅 Embarking on a dream journey at the University of East Asia

In the 1950s and 1960s, many families tended to have more children, and Janny's family was no exception. She had five siblings in total, but her parents could only afford the university tuition for her eldest brother. Although she had a strong desire for knowledge, she chose to enter the workforce after completing her teachers' college programme to ease the family's financial burden. With her excellent academic performance, she was hired as a teacher early on.

However, the goal of attending university never disappeared from Janny's mind. She decided to work while saving money, and then pursue her university dream in her spare time. The UEA became an excellent opportunity for her to realize this dream. At that time, the university's courses had flexible attendance requirements, which perfectly suited her needs of working while pursuing further studies. In addition, she was a fan of Mr. Lam Chor Hon, who was the university librarian at the time, and often watched his television programme "A WORD A DAY". "I often watched his television programme in Hong Kong, so I really wanted to study at the UEA in Macao and major in literature and history." This scholar, whom she greatly admired, led her to embark on her study journey at the UEA.

Academic freedom expands thinking

潘金英表示，大學自由開放的學術氛圍是她最為欣賞的教學特色之一。「大學的教育方式培養了我更開放、仔細及專業的思維，讓我獲得全方位發展。」在大學培養出的多元思維能力，對她的創作和教育生涯有莫大裨益。

除此之外，大學的圖書館亦是她的精神糧食。「圖書館的藏書量豐富且完善，實在令人大開眼界，對學生的發展非常有幫助！」大學的圖書館令她更深切地體會到「書山有路勤為徑」，從古籍文獻到現代文學，廣泛的閱讀不僅為她在兒童文學創作上積累了深厚的文化底蘊，亦讓她在教育事業上能向莘莘學子分享更多知識。

Janny said that the university's free and open academic atmosphere was one of the teaching characteristics she appreciated most. "The university's educational approach cultivated my more open, meticulous and professional thinking, allowing me to develop in an all-round way." The diverse thinking abilities cultivated at the university have been of great benefit to her creative and educational career.

In addition, the university library was also her spiritual nourishment. "At that time, the library's collection was rich and comprehensive, which was truly eye-opening and very helpful for students' development!" The university library made her deeply appreciate that "Diligence is the path to the mountain of knowledge". From ancient texts to modern literature, extensive reading not only accumulated profound cultural foundation for her children's literature creation, but also enabled her to share more knowledge with students in her educational career.

Childhood dreams begin with fairy tales

談及創作啟蒙，潘金英自幼便與其妹潘明珠沉浸在童話故事的世界裡，不論是一同閱讀故事、講故事或是以玩具演繹故事中的角色，童年回憶都充斥著童話故事，姊妹倆更是相當享受以此作互動的樂趣。在她們的高中時期，都為會考及升學感到煩惱。在互相傾訴心事之際，希望為青春留下美好回憶，毅然決定一同執筆，以共同創作的短篇小說《籠中鼠》參加香港大型徵文比賽——《潮流創作比賽》。

When talking about her creative enlightenment, Janny said that she and her younger sister Ms. Poon Ming Chu had been immersed in the world of fairy tales since childhood. Whether reading stories together, telling stories, or using toys to play out the roles in the stories, their childhood memories were filled with fairy tales, and the sisters greatly enjoyed the fun of such interactions. During their secondary school years, both were worried about public examinations and further studies. While confiding in each other, hoping to leave beautiful memories of their youth, they resolutely decided to write together and submitted their co-authored short story "A Mouse in a Cage" to a major Hong Kong writing competition - the "Trend Creative Writing Competition".

她笑稱當時姊妹倆「膽粗粗」地將作品寄出，更認為幸勿論成敗，能夠挑戰自我已是贏家，不料竟在比賽中脫穎而出，斬獲冠軍。當時比賽的評審有金庸、西西等文壇巨匠，因此奪獎可謂是她開展創作路的強心針，獲獎後更受雜誌邀請成為專欄作家，專門撰寫少年小說，「一切就彷彿冥冥中自有安排，使我因緣際會踏上文學之路。」

She laughed and said that the sisters "boldly" sent out their work at that time, believing that regardless of success or failure, challenging themselves was already a victory. Unexpectedly, they stood out in the competition and won the championship. The judges of the competition at that time included literary giants such as Mr. Jin Yong and Ms. Xi Xi, so winning the award was a great encouragement for her to embark on the path of creative writing. After winning the award, she was invited by magazines to become a columnist, specialising in writing youth novels. "Everything seemed to be arranged by fate, leading me to embark on the path of literature by chance."

春風化雨 以文與教回饋社會

Nurturing students and giving back to society through writing and teaching

對於想從事文學創作或教育的學子，潘金英建議有志者可以培養閱讀習慣，多點閱讀不同類型的書籍，因為對於資訊的吸收閱讀尤為重要，不僅是精神糧食，也是一種文學素養。「知識的累積可以由書入手，當需要創作靈感時，自身有足夠的知識量自然就會言之有物，創作真摯有內容，便能啟迪他人，傳揚旨意。」

以文學及教育化作甘露滋潤大眾，潘金英數十年間從未停下腳步。在作家、中學老師、大學導師等多重身分下，她一直以自身最為真摯有力的方式啟迪他人。作為校友，她對年輕學子贈予「天道酬勤」四字作寄語，因為她堅信謙虛努力的人必能成大器，努力過後終會得到歲月豐盛的回饋。

For students who want to pursue literary creation or education, Janny suggests that those with aspirations can cultivate reading habits and read more different types of books, because reading is particularly important for information absorption. It is not only spiritual nourishment, but also a kind of literary cultivation. "The accumulation of knowledge can start with books. When you need creative inspiration, having sufficient knowledge will naturally make your words meaningful. When your creation is genuine and substantial, it can enlighten others and share your insights."

Using literature and education as nourishment to enrich the public, Janny has never stopped for decades. As a writer, secondary school teacher, university tutor, and in multiple other roles, she has always enlightened others in the most genuine and powerful way. As an alumna, she gives young students the message "Heaven rewards the diligent", because she firmly believes that humble and hardworking people will surely achieve great things, and their efforts will eventually be rewarded with the abundant gifts of time.

黎寧校友：以教育去照亮自己的「家」 Alumna Lai Neng Rose: Illuminating her “Home” through education

黎寧 (Rose) 在澳門成長，1990 年於澳門東亞大學畢業，現為澳門大學榮譽學院院長及工商管理學院教授。在她的人生旅程中，「使命感」與「家」是兩個貫穿始終的關鍵詞。

Lai Neng Rose grew up in Macao and graduated from the University of East Asia (UEA) in 1990. She is currently the Dean of the Honours College (HC) and a professor at the Faculty of Business Administration of the University of Macau (UM). In her life journey, “sense of mission” and “home” are two key themes that run throughout.

傳承信念，踏上學術之路

Inheriting beliefs and embarking on an academic path

談及當年選擇報讀澳門東亞大學的原因，Rose 表示：「在父母的言傳身教下，我自幼便有深刻的認知；認為求學之路的終點不應止步於中學，所以畢業後決定報讀大學繼續進修。」回想起在東亞大學讀書的點滴，她謂：「當時的學習資源雖然不是很充裕，甚至有些課是在貨櫃箱內上的，但我們卻沒有被環境限制，反而更加珍惜學習的機會。」在東亞大學這個東西文化交融、思想開放的環境及學術氣氛下，她學會獨立思考，並培養了對學術的興趣，為日後赴海外深造埋下了種子。

When talking about her reason for choosing to study at UEA, Rose said, “My parents taught me that the path of learning should not end with secondary school. Therefore, after graduation, I decided to pursue further studies at university.” Recalling her days at UEA, she noted, “Although the learning resources at that time were not very abundant, and some classes were even held in containers, we were not limited by the environment. Instead, we cherished the learning opportunities even more.” Immersed in UEA’s open-mindedness and academically vibrant atmosphere where Eastern and Western cultures converged, she learned to think independently and developed an interest in academia, which planted the seed for her future overseas studies.

懷著一顆謙遜而勇敢的心去看世界

Exploring the world with a humble yet brave heart

抱著對知識的渴求，Rose 於大學畢業後，前往加拿大繼續攻讀碩士課程。期間她心裡也曾泛起過不安，她表示：「澳門人的基因就是謙虛，總認為自己不夠別人好，故出國前我也擔心，自己的能力會比不上外國的同學。」到達加拿大後，憑藉從東亞大學所獲得的扎實學術基礎，她的學習成績絲毫不遜色於其他國際學生，這給了她更大的動力去積極學習。而這段海外求學經歷更堅定了她日後繼續追求學術的信心。

Driven by a thirst for knowledge, Rose went to Canada to pursue a master's degree after graduating from UEA. During that time, she also felt uneasy. She expressed, “Humility is ingrained in Macao people. We always thought that we were not as good as others, so before going abroad, I was also worried that my abilities would not match up to foreign students.” After arriving in Canada, with the solid academic foundation she gained from UEA, her academic performance was by no means inferior to other international students, which gave her greater motivation to study actively. This overseas study experience further strengthened her confidence to continue pursuing academics in the future.

「使命感」召，毅然回「家」

Called by a "Sense of mission", resolutely returning "Home"

在一次偶然的機會下，Rose 替同學到中學代課，她謂：「那是我第一次感受到教學的喜悅，看著同學們在課堂上有所收穫，我覺得很有滿足感。」這次的經歷點燃了她對教學的熱誠。源於對母校這個「家」的情誼及培育人才的「使命感」，她於1993年正式加入澳門大學，開啟了她的學術與教學生涯。同時，她在香港中文大學繼續攻讀博士學位，並於2001年初取得金融學博士學位。

談到教學多年來讓她感到自豪的事情，她謂：「曾經有一位成績普通的學生，讓我幫忙撰寫推薦信去報讀海外的碩士課程，最終他成功被心儀的大學錄取。讓我動容的是，他在大學的成績雖然中等；但他在入讀碩士課程後，不但掌握到課程內容，而且還主動幫忙身邊同學複習。同時，他非常感謝母校的老師及我的幫忙，並坦言自己能被英國的大學錄取，離不開 Rose 所寫的推薦信。」因此，這位學生在畢業後仍回到母校與她重聚，感謝師恩。Rose 一直與學生們保持著亦師亦友的關係，她認為教學除了是傳遞知識外，亦應讓學生享受學習的過程，「我曾收到學生的期末反饋，稱總盼著周一和周四去上 Rose 的課。」學生這份發自內心的認可為她的教學生涯帶來鼓舞。而這些師生間的深厚情誼，亦讓她更堅信老師的使命，就是陪伴學生成長、幫助他們去發掘與實現自己的潛能，找到自己的方向及理想。「使命感」這句話，既是她當初回母校任教的初心，亦是她數十年如一日堅守崗位的寫照。

By chance, Rose substituted for a classmate in teaching at a secondary school. She said, "That was the first time I felt the joy of teaching. Seeing students benefit from the class gave me a great sense of satisfaction." This experience ignited her passion for teaching. Due to her affection for her Alma Mater as her "home" and her "sense of mission" to nurture talents, she joined UM in 1993, beginning her academic and teaching career. Meanwhile, she also pursued her doctoral degree at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and obtained her PhD in Finance in early 2001.

When it comes to the things that have made her proud over the years of teaching, she said, "There was once a student with average GPA who asked me to write a recommendation letter for applying to an overseas master's programme. In the end, he was successfully admitted to his dream university. What touches me most is that despite his academic performance was merely average in UM, he not only was able to master the course contents in the master's programme thoroughly, but also took the initiative to assist his fellow classmates. Moreover, he also expressed his gratitude to the teachers of his Alma Mater, including me for their assistance. He believed that his admission to that university in the UK would not have been possible without my recommendation letter." Thus, after graduation, he came back to the Alma Mater to visit her and express his gratitude. Rose has always maintained teacher and friend relationships with the students. She believes that teaching is not only about conveying knowledge, but also about allowing students to enjoy the learning process. "I once received end-of-term feedback from a student, saying she always looked forward to Mondays and Thursdays to attend Rose's classes." This heartfelt recognition from students has brought encouragement to her teaching career. These deep bonds between teachers and students have also made her more convinced that a teacher's mission is to accompany students in their growth, help them discover and realise their potential, and find their own direction and goals. The phrase "sense of mission" is not only her original intention when she returned to teach at her Alma Mater, but also a reflection of her dedication to her position for decades.

2019年，Rose接任榮譽學院院長一職。對她來說，這除了是一個行政工作，更是一份任重道遠的責任和使命感。她強調：「榮譽學院的宗旨，是希望培養具備協作能力、創意思維與競爭力的卓越領袖。我希望學生不僅學到知識，更學會成為一個有擔當的人。」在未來，她表示榮譽學院將秉承「E.L.I.T.E.」的口號，會同理 (Empathetic)、能帶領 (Leading)、跨文化 (Intercultural)、可信賴 (Trustworthy) 及有原則 (Ethical) 來持續為課程注入新元素；全面提升同學們的跨專業學習體驗，擴展他們的技能發展和國際觀，為母校培育具備全球視野與社會責任的領袖人才。對她而言，澳大就是她的「家」，教學這份工作不僅是一份職業選擇；更是一份對「家」的責任，所以她希望以學到的知識來回饋這個「家」。

In 2019, Rose took over as Dean of the HC. For her, this is not only an administrative position, but also responsibilities and mission with a long road ahead. She emphasised, "The purpose of the HC is to cultivate outstanding leaders with collaborative abilities, creative thinking and competitiveness. I hope that students not only acquire knowledge, but also learn to become responsible individuals." In the future, she said that the HC will uphold the slogan "E.L.I.T.E." - Empathetic, Leading, Intercultural, Trustworthy and Ethical - to continuously inject new elements into the curriculum, comprehensively enhance students' interdisciplinary learning experiences, expand their skill development and international perspective, and cultivate leadership talents with a global vision and social responsibility for the Alma Mater. For her, UM is her "home", and teaching is not just a career choice, but also a responsibility to her "home". Therefore, she hopes to give back to this "home" with the knowledge she has learned.

勇敢追夢，無懼挑戰

Pursuing dreams bravely and embracing challenges fearlessly

Rose的經歷印證了教育不僅是知識的傳遞，更是價值的塑造與夢想的點燃。她勉勵校友要相信自己的能力，「不要因為自己與別人的差距而害怕，也不要因為對方的成功而卻步。學會欣賞別人的同時，也要肯定自己，不斷提升及發掘自己的潛能。」她同時寄語校友在走出澳大、走向世界後，不要忘記回饋母校，「作為澳大這個大家庭的一份子，他們應對自己的校友身份感到驕傲，時刻記著當初在母校那份謙遜及勇於嘗試的精神，努力在人生舞台上展現自我。」她深信這份源自「家」的力量，將引領更多校友，帶著母校的足跡繼續前行，在各自的專業領域內為母校及社會的發展作出貢獻。

Rose's experiences prove that education is not only the transmission of knowledge, but also the shaping of values and the igniting of dreams. She encourages alumni to believe in their own abilities. "Don't be afraid because of the gap between yourself and others, and don't hold back because of others' success. While learning to appreciate others, you must also affirm yourself and constantly improve and discover your potential." She also encourages the alumni to give back to the Alma Mater after leaving and going out into the world. "As members of the UM family, they should be proud of their alumni status and always remember the humility and spirit of daring to try that they had at the Alma Mater, striving to show themselves on the stage of life." She firmly believes that this power derived from "home" will guide the alumni to move forward with the footprints of the Alma Mater and contribute to the development of the Alma Mater and society in their respective professional fields.

自2009年成立以來，榮譽學院就有着清晰的願景：作為澳門未來領袖的搖籃，使我們的學生放眼世界，預備在各領域各展所長。在2009年9月23日的成立典禮上，時任澳門特別行政長官蒞臨揭幕，成為學院發展的重要里程碑。成立榮譽學院不僅是澳門大學的率先嘗試，更體現了澳門高等教育界獨樹一幟的發展探索。榮譽學院是第一所致力於培育未來領袖的跨學科學院。2020年，學院的榮譽課程在澳門特區教育及青年發展局正式註冊為「榮譽學院證書課程」，進一步肯定了榮譽學院在教育上的卓越追求和貢獻。

Since its establishment in 2009, HC has already had a clear visionary goal: to serve as a cradle for future leaders in Macao, with alumni prepared to make a positive impact across various fields worldwide. The Inauguration Ceremony held on September 23, 2009 was graced by the then Chief Executive of Macao S.A.R., marking a significant milestone in the college's journey. This initiative was not merely a fresh endeavor by the University of Macau, it represented a distinctive advancement for the higher education community in Macao. As the first interdisciplinary college dedicated to nurturing future leaders, HC plays a pivotal role in shaping the future. In 2020, the Honours Programme was officially registered with the Education and Youth Development Bureau of Macao S.A.R. as the “Honours College Certificate Programme,” further solidifying its commitment to excellence in education.

At the donation ceremony, Vong I Tat, President of UEASA, presented the specimens to UM on behalf of Dr. Easton, and UM Vice Rector Rui Martins accepted the donation on behalf of the university. Martins then presented certificates of appreciation to Dr. Easton and UEASA, which were received by Vong I Tat and Loi Chi Kong, president of the Executive Committee of UEASA, respectively.
